On 23rd - 24th September 2022, the “12th China IP International Annual Forum & 2022 Annual Conference of In-house IP Managers in China”, which is launched by the “China IP Magazine”, is held in Beijing.

The Forum, featuring “New Normal: Integrity, Insight and Innovation”, focuses on exploring how business innovation and IP industry could evolve to adapt to a changing world. The Forum brings together a full house of attendees, including prominent figures from government agencies, judiciaries, academia and in-house counsels.

The opening ceremony is officiated by heavyweight speakers including Professor Liu Chuntian, Chairman of the China Intellectual Property Law Association and Professor of Renmin University of China, Qin Yuanming, Chief Judge, Civil Adjudication Tribunal No. 3 (IPR Division), Supreme People’s Court (SPC), AIPPI President Luiz Henrique do Amaral, as well as INTA CEO Etienne Sanz de Acedo. The ceremony is hosted by Tommy Zhang, President and Editor-in-Chief of China IP Magazine.

In the evening of September 24, the winners of the “2021 Outstanding In-house IP Managers in China”, “2021 Outstanding IP Service Teams in China”, “2021 Outstanding Corporate IP Management Teams in China”, “2021 Most Recommended International IP Agencies”, as well as “2021 China IP Most Influential Figures” were announced.

Wanhuida Intellectual Property is included in the “2021 Outstanding IP Service Teams in China”. The firm’s Partner He Wei accepts the prize on the podium.

Launched in 2011, the Forum is lauded as one of the most influential annual events in China’s IP community.
