The 148th Annual Meeting of the International Trademark Association (INTA) takes place in London, England, from May 2 to May 6, 2026. This year's event boasts over 9,700 registrants, encompassing brand owners and professionals, government officials, business leaders, judges, and academics from 145 jurisdictions.

Practitioners from Wanhuida Intellectual Property attend various INTA events.

Bai Gang, Founding Partner and Management Committee Chair of the firm is invited to attend the INTA Board Alumni Luncheon, in his capacity as an ex- INTA board member.

Jason Yao, the firm's Partner and Management Committee Member, attends the INTA Foundation Board Meeting, in his capacity as a foundation board member.

Partner He Wei attends the INTA Rising stars Reception.

Partners He Wei and Fan Yongming interact with attendees from the firm's booth, which is part of the on-site exhibition of the Beijing Intellectual Property Office.

Partner He Wei also shares actionable insights and best practices with fellow panelists on the “Guardrails or Handcuffs? AI Regulation's Impact on Brand Strategy” session. The session explores the fast-evolving AI regulatory landscape and its impact on brand management. Panelists examine current AI regulations and emerging policy frameworks across key jurisdictions, highlighting implications for brand protection, enforcement, and reputation.

The firm is also an ardent participant of the INTA table topics, which offer the practitioners an opportunity to engage in small-group, moderated discussions, meaningful dialogue, practical insight-sharing, and peer-to-peer learning in an intimate setting.

Partner Jason Yao moderates table topic themed “Best Practices for Winning High Damages Against Counterfeiters”.
